9

10 Because the public interest favors filing all court documents in the public record, any party
11 seeking to file a document under seal must demonstrate good cause to do so.<sup>1</sup> This cannot be 12 established simply by showing that the document is subject to a protective order, but rather must be
13 supported by a sworn declaration demonstrating with particularity the need to file each document
14 under seal. See Local Rule 79-5(a). If good cause exists only to file portions of a particular 15 document under seal, a redacted version of the document must be filed in the public record. Local 16 Rule 79-5(c).
17

25 <sup>1</sup> A “compelling interest” standard applies to documents filed in support of or opposition to a
26 dispositive motion. Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass’n, 504 F.3d 792, 801-03 (9th Cir. 2007).
